DC REPORT

Hi Riders,

The end of year is fast approaching, I hope all riders have sent all their results to Erin throughout the year as I am about to tally them up for our perpetual trophies given out at presentation night.

Our end of year celebration will start with a XC day on Saturday 6/12 at Lilydale and Yarra Glen Hunt Club (Lilydale PC) our instructors will be Faye Flood and a guest instructor Jen Mainland. The cost of using the grounds is $20 per rider.

Can you all let me know if you are interested and how many lessons you would like on the day. We all get time to head home and then over to the Clubrooms for presentation night we go! We can all celebrate another successful year at Wyena Pony Club.

Sunday 7/12 will be a Teams Fun day, lots of games and dressing up in your team colours! So we need you to RSVP to all three activities.

Happy riding
Jaynia

Jen Mainland

Jen Mainland has been riding since she was four years old and successfully competing across all disciplines since she was seven, with a particular passion for eventing.

A degree in Psychology and a strong background in Pilates, Management and Mentoring combine to enable Jen to work with your horse, your body and your mind to achieve exceptional results. She places a strong emphasis on preparing you to best connect with your horse through basic Pilates stretching, body awareness and simple exercises on horseback. Her excellent communication skills coupled with her unique sense of fun and knowledge of different learning stages and styles makes her a popular and effective coach for very young children right through to older adults.

Jen has a wealth of experience teaching all ages, levels and breeds. She has a particular talent for confidence-building and motivation and has had enormous success in these areas. Jen works with you to set short, medium and long term goals and forge realistic pathways to achieve those goals, making your riding more enjoyable and developing the best possible partnership between you and your horse. She has a number of clients who are regularly winning in dressage, showjumping, horse trials, combined training and showing, including some RDA clients.

Jen is Vice President of the HRCAV, an HRCAV Level Assessor, President, Werribee Central Equestrian Club and a member of Equestrian Australia.

Jen regularly instructs privately, at Adult Riding Clubs and Pony Clubs and hosts eventing clinics.

Uniform

Rallies

Our gold v neck jumper with the new emblem can be worn to all rallies with our gold tie and white shirt only.

No polo tops are to be worn under our jumpers.

Our new navy and gold polo can be worn to rallies and can be worn under our new gold and navy blue rugby jumper. No long sleeve t-shirts can be worn under the polo.

Our new spray jacket and rain jackets can be worn on and off the horse at rallies.

Only beige or white jodhpurs can be worn at rallies.

Competitions

Dressage and Show jumping:

Our gold v neck jumper with the emblem can be worn with a white shirt and our gold tie. Our polo shirt can also be worn in both phases.

Cross country:

The jumper as above with shirt and tie may be worn. Our polo may also be worn (never under a jumper). Our new navy blue and gold rugby jumper may be worn in this phase.

The new navy and gold spray jacket and rain jacket can be worn at comps while walking around, warming up but not in any phase of competition.

PCAV rules are if the uniform is not worn correctly elimination can occur.

Our old gold and brown uniform

The uniform is now obsolete, and must not be worn at rallies or at competitions.
